

The Harold C. Schott Foundation Eating Disorders Program at Lindner Center of HOPE invites you to a FREE virtual movie night in honor of Eating Disorders Awareness Week.

An Evening of Radical Self-Love Spend an evening with Sonya Renee Taylor!

What?

The Harold C. Schott Foundation Eating Disorder Program at the Lindner Center of HOPE invites you to our 5th annual movie night, in celebration of Eating Disorders Awareness Week, discussing radical self-love. This event is free to attend.

Join us while we watch an engaging recording of Sonya Renee Taylor, the founder and Radical Executive Officer of Your Body is Not an Apology.

A professionally-led reflection and discussion by Lindner Center of HOPE clinical staff (and members of the Lindner Center of HOPE Diversity and Inclusion Council) will follow this 20-minute video. We will share thoughts and ideas to help us transform our own lives to one consistent with radical self-love, as well as ways to expand this to our broader society.

"Radical self-love demands that we see ourselves and others in the fullness of our complexities." –Sonya Renee Taylor

Where?

This event will be run virtually through Zoom (details sent with RSVP email confirmation).
